By providing your personal information, you agree that we can transfer such information in those circumstances without your further consent. Should such a business transition occur, we will make reasonable efforts to request that the new owner or combined entity (as applicable) follow this Privacy Policy with respect to your personal information. If your personal information would be used contrary to this privacy policy, we will request that you receive prior notice.

When We Use and Share Non-Personal Information

We use and share your non-personal, de-identified or aggregated data in a variety of ways, including to improve the Services. Cookies and Tokens

We use tracking technologies, such as cookies, local storage, and pixel tags as described further below.

Cookies and Local Storage

Cookies and local storage may be set and accessed on your computer. Upon your first visit to the Services, a cookie or local storage will be sent to your computer that uniquely identifies your browser. "Cookies" and local storage are small files containing a string of characters that is sent to your computer's browser and stored on your device when you visit a website. You can reset your browser to refuse all cookies or to indicate when a cookie is being sent; however, if you reject cookies, you may not be able to sign in to the Services or take full advantage of our Services. Additionally, if you clear all cookies on your browser at any point after setting your browser to refuse all cookies or indicate when a cookie is being sent, you will have to again reset your browser to refuse all cookies or indicate when a cookie is being sent.

Our Services use the following types of cookies for the purposes set out below:

Type of Cookie

Analytics and Performance Cookies

These cookies are used to collect information about traffic to our Services and how users use our Services. The information gathered does not identify any individual visitor. The information is aggregated and therefore anonymous. It includes the number of visitors to our Services, the websites that referred them to our Services, the pages that they visited on our Services, what time of day they visited our Services, whether they have visited our Services before, and other similar information. We use this information to help operate our Services more efficiently, to gather broad demographic information and to monitor the level of activity on our Services. We use Google Analytics and Simply.com web statistic for this purpose. Google Analytics uses its own cookies. It is only used to improve how our Services works. You can find out more information about Google Analytics cookies here and Simply.com web statistic here You can find out more about how Google protects your data here. You can prevent the use of Google Analytics relating to your use of our Services by downloading and installing the browser plugin available via this link.

Essential Cookies

These cookies are essential to provide you with services available through our Services and to enable you to use its features. For example, they allow you to log in to secure areas of our Services and help the content of the pages you request load quickly. Without these cookies, the services that you have asked for cannot be provided, and we only use these cookies to provide you with those services.

Functionality Cookies

These cookies allow our Services to remember choices you make when you use our Services, such as remembering your language preferences, remembering your login details, remembering which polls you have voted in and in some cases, to show you poll results, and remembering the changes you make to other parts of our Services which you can customize. These cookies also enable us to identify you across various screens and devices as you login and use our Services, as well as enable us to work with partners to resolve your digital identities and personalize your experiences across our Services, our partners and customers, and across channels. The purpose of these cookies is to provide you with a more personal experience and to avoid you having to re-enter your preferences every time you visit our Services.

Pixel Tags

We also use "pixel tags," which are small graphic files that allow us and third parties to monitor the use of the Services and collect usage data. We may also insert pixel tags on third parties' websites. A pixel tag can collect information such as the IP address of the computer that downloaded the page on which the tag appears; the URL of the page on which the pixel tag appears; the time (and length of time) the page containing the pixel tag was viewed; the type of browser that retrieved the pixel tag; and the identification number of any cookie previously placed by that server on your computer. We use pixel tags to collect information about your visit, including the pages you view, the links you click and other actions taken in connection with our sites and Services and use them in combination with our cookies to provide offers and information of interest to you. We may also use pixel tags to collect data related to a website visit. Similar functionality may be enabled in a mobile app through the use of an SDK (Software Development Kit). Pixel tags also enable ad networks to serve targeted advertisements to you when you visit the Services or other websites. In addition, we use a variety of other technologies that collect similar information for security and fraud detection purposes.

You can also find more information about cookies and how they work, what cookies have been set on your computer or mobile device and how to manage and delete them at <http://www.allaboutcookies.org> and <http://www.youronlinechoices.com>.

To be clear, Collegesport.us does not, and cannot, track your activity when you are not using the Services and does not collect activity about your online activity after you leave the Services.

How to Opt-Out of Email Communications

To stop receiving notifications or promotions, please click the unsubscribe link found at the bottom of each email. For users in the European Economic Area (“EEA”): We only send marketing communications to users located in the EEA with your prior consent. Please see the section “GDPR: Information for EEA Users” below.

International Data Transfers for EU and Swiss Individuals

Personal data collected through our Services will be transferred to and stored by us in Denmark and on our Service Providers machines in and outside Denmark; therefore, your personal data might be processed outside your jurisdiction in a country that is not currently subject to an adequacy decision by the European Commission, and that may not provide the same level of data protection as your jurisdiction, such as the EEA. We ensure that the recipient of your personal data offers an adequate level of protection and security, for instance by entering into the appropriate back-to-back agreements and, if required, standard contractual clauses or alternative mechanism for the transfer of data as approved by the European Commission (Art. 46 GDPR) or other applicable regulator

GDPR: Information for EEA Users

This section only applies to our EU and European Economic Area (“EEA”) users.

Individuals located in the EU and EEA have certain rights in respect of your personal data, including:

- The right of access to your personal data.
- The right to correct or rectify any inaccurate personal data.
- The right to restrict the processing of personal data
- The right to object to processing of personal data
- The right to erase your personal data; and
- The right to personal data portability.

As a Collegesport.us user:

- We rely on your consent as a lawful basis for processing personal data to provide you with marketing or promotional communications.
- We process personal data in order to provide you with services as requested by you or to perform our contract with you as described in this document, including:
 - To enable the Services to function as expected; and
 - To communicate with you in response to customer service inquiries and to deliver nonpromotional, service-related emails.
- Additionally, we process personal data based on our “legitimate interests” in providing you the Services including:
 - To protect against fraud.
 - Network and information security; and
 - To offer the Services.

In some cases, Collegesport.us may process personal data pursuant to a legal obligation or to protect your vital interests or those of another person.

Collegesport.us will offer EU, EEA and Swiss individuals whose personal data has been transferred to us the opportunity to choose whether the personal data we have received may be used or disclosed for a purpose other than the purpose for which it was originally collected or subsequently authorized by the individual. An individual may opt-out of such uses or disclosures of their personal data by contacting us at info@collegesport.us
